LONDON BASED WEDDING AND EVENT PHOTOGRAPHER

As a wedding and Event photographer based in London, I am passionate about capturing and sharing moments. For me, photography is more than just freezing time; it's a powerful tool for preserving your memories. I am committed to telling powerful stories through my lens, capturing not only the ceremonies but also the emotions, culture, and traditions. Coming from an Asian background, I understand the importance of cultural nuances and work closely with couples to create a personalised photography experience
